

Multiple Disciplines - Faculty Positions

Algoma University

Location: Ontario

Date posted: 2013-01-31

Algoma University in Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario invites applications for faculty positions in the following areas:

ECONOMICS

A tenure track appointment at the entry level, beginning July 1, 2013. The successful candidate must have completed a PhD (or ABD) in Economics, demonstrate a commitment to research and undergraduate teaching, and possess teaching expertise in several of the following: Introductory Economics, Intermediate Macroeconomics, Money and Banking, Economic Development, International Finance, Public Finance, Environmental Economics, and Economics of Natural Resources. The ability to develop an independent research program and the potential to secure external research funding is an asset.

SOCIOLOGY

Two tenure-track appointments at the entry level, beginning July 1, 2013. The successful candidate must have completed a PhD in Sociology with obvious strengths in undergraduate teaching. Areas of teaching expertise should cover one or several of the following: social inequality, social construction of families and aging, social theory, globalization and/or quantitative methods. Knowledge and understanding of Aboriginal issues is required. The ability to develop an independent research program in the candidate's research area and the potential to secure external research funding is an asset.

LAW & JUSTICE

A 9-month contract-limited appointment at the entry-level, beginning August 1, 2013. Candidates must have a Ph.D. or SJD (or imminent completion), evidence of excellent teaching ability at the undergraduate level, and demonstrated ability to develop an independent research program. The successful candidate must possess expertise in Criminal Law with teaching interests in Criminal Law, Law and Social Sciences, Private Law, and Introduction to Legal Studies.

HISTORY

A 9-month contract-limited appointment at the entry-level, beginning August 1, 2013. The successful candidate must have completed a PhD. or be A.B.D. in a relevant field, and have a demonstrated commitment to undergraduate teaching. The successful candidate will possess an expertise in early modern British history, as well as the history of ideas, and will complement the department's strengths in European and North American history.

PSYCHOLOGY

A 9-month contract-limited appointment at the entry-level, beginning August 1, 2013. The successful candidate must have a completed PhD, and a demonstrated commitment to research and undergraduate teaching. The area of specialization for this position is open, though preference will be given to candidates with expertise in Clinical and Counseling Psychology. The successful candidate may be asked to teach statistics and introductory psychology and will be encouraged to supervise honours thesis projects.

Candidates interested in any of the positions available at Algoma University are required to submit electronically: a letter of application, a CV, statement of teaching philosophy, a research plan (up to two pages), and reprints of their three most significant publications to:

Dr. Arthur Perlini, Academic Dean at: deanapps@algonau.ca. Application materials should be submitted as a single combined PDF file with the file name identifying the applicant. Applicants must also arrange for three letters of reference (one of whom must be the most recent immediate supervisor) to be sent electronically. Applications will be accepted until April 1, 2013 or until the positions are filled. These positions are subject to budgetary approval.

The university web site (<http://www.algonau.ca>) offers a good introduction to Algoma University, situated in Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, at the heart of the Great Lakes on the Canada-US border. The position is open to all qualified applicants, although preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada. The University is an inclusive and equitable campus encouraging applications from qualified women and men including persons with disabilities, members of visible minorities and Indigenous persons.